

My dear friend

This day a Bank
Note for 100 £
is to be remitted to F. Jackson My dear J. 50 £ my two brothers 12 £ & myself make up the other
I am sorry to tell thee My dearest J. is again ill, a very serious attack 8 days ago, he is recovering a little & thus is a great favour, we are the more concerned at it, as he has always been from 25 so strong & healthy
I had a note from
dear F. Reese she has sent 20 £. to Edinburgh to hear E Wigham who she hopes may get a little more to add to it - but is doubtful about it - I am in haste

or would write more or delay it but I thought there would be anxious to know about the funds -
I trust some one or all will exert in America also - I am glad to hear you have all escaped the deadly scourge alas! what a de-

plausible state the world is in, they talk of a Peace Congress in Paris in 8 mo. August I hope E B & others will not toil in vain -
My love to thy sisters thy dear ones & self My Brother unites
thy attack & friend in the cause
